

Consultant Solicitor of the Year

Entries for this award are for individual consultant solicitors ONLY

Conveyancing has seen a boom in the number of “Consultant Solicitors” employed under the umbrella of larger law firms. The Consultant Solicitor model provides an alternative route to employment for many, incorporating much of the flexibility and benefits of self-employment, with the wider support of a larger conveyancing practice.

Who stands out as the cream of the crop? Who can demonstrate an effective partnership between the firm and the consultant? Who is delivering exceptional service and delighting their clients?

Criteria

The winner of this award must:

- Explain their motivations for embarking on a consultant solicitor career and how this has driven their business forward.
- Outline how their business strategy (sourcing work/ service delivery/ business management) contributes to their success.
- Outline how they work with the umbrella firm to maximise the relationship.
- Demonstrate a commitment to continuous professional development and training.
