

Residential Conveyancing Team of the Year

This award recognises that there is no “I” in “Team” and law firms are often much more than the sum of their parts. Many full-service firms have excellent Residential Conveyancing teams and the winning submission will demonstrate how they work to support their own targets and ambitions, and those of the wider business.

The winner will showcase a team-based approach to practice with diverse mix of team members bringing a variety of skills and experience to produce a winning combination.

Criteria:

This team must demonstrate:

- How their department delivers exceptional client service.
- How the department contributes to the overall success of the wider business.
- The recruitment, retention and training of staff with high levels of skill and technical ability.
- A flair for innovation and championing best practice.
- Where possible, provide evidence of reviews/recognition/testimonials/recommendations.
