

New Build Conveyancing Team of the Year

This Category is open to law firms ONLY

The new government's commitment to housebuilding, to the tune of 1.5m homes over the course of this Parliament, will see new build conveyancing take on a new importance in the drive to encourage more home ownership, particularly among young people.

New build conveyancing is an increasingly complex area of law with specialist teams servicing house builders and developers. This award recognises new-build conveyancing in its own right, celebrating the expertise and skill required to deliver exceptional service.

Criteria:

The winner of this award must demonstrate over the last 12 months:

- how the firm has built up the expertise and skill for new build specific technical excellence
- customer service excellence throughout the customer journey
- a commitment to continued employee training
- examples of providing tangible benefits to clients and strategic partners
- demonstrable success in growing a new build specific conveyancing department
